

PLEASE READ PAGES 1 – 6 CAREFULLY (FAQ & ELIGIBILITY) BEFORE COMPLETING THE APPLICATION AND RELEASE FORM:

MOST FREQUENTLY ASKED QUESTIONS

1. What is X-tremegolf?

It's an exciting and unusual golf tournament played within a reality based TV series format. It will feature 4 men and 4 women competing in an eccentric elimination round golf tournament played on six different 18 hole courses out over six consecutive days. The travel itinerary will be non-stop and hectic. Accommodations will vary from 5 Star hotels to tents. Meals will range from bland to exceptional. Travel could include any mode of transportation and take players over thousands of miles. Competitors will never know what will happen next or where they are going. Players will be followed and taped by TV crews during the entire tournament. The only time they won't be filmed is while they use the washroom facilities. Most importantly, the producers will inject a variety of irritations and nuisances to distract and frustrate players during their game. Forget people being quiet when you swing or put. The best golfer may not win. The moderate golfer with the greatest patience and nerves-of steel may win. Each day someone will be eliminated and each day someone will be rewarded. Three players will be left to compete for the grand prize on the 6th and final day. Players who are eliminated will be kept on location and get to enjoy the balance of their time playing golf until the tournament is concluded.

2. Is there an age limit for applicants?

You must be 21 or older to apply. There are no upper age limits. All completed entries from people over age 21 or older will be accepted for consideration.

3. How important is my handicap in your selection process?

We are not looking for beginners or professionals. We want amateurs who are passionate and serious enough about golf to play as often as they can and have a fairly respectable handicap.

4. What happens if I'm selected?

"Loose lips sink ships!" You will be sworn to secrecy and have to sign all sorts of waivers, insurance papers, confidentiality agreements and health forms. You will NOT be allowed to speak to anyone about anything that happened during the tournament until all 6 episodes have completed airing. NOT TO ANYONE! If you or someone close to you leaks any information to anyone about your experiences or any results during the tournament before the series is broadcast you would be subjected to major legal action against you and your estate for the damages caused. Considering the costs to the Producers, sponsors, advertisers, broadcasters and fellow competitors we cannot stress the importance of confidentiality enough. Breaking confidentiality would damage the critical surprise elements of the series and thereby sabotage the project and injure the Producers, Sponsors, Broadcasters, competitors and viewers. You don't want to go there for any reason and we're confident you understand the very serious reasons for confidentiality. Once the series has aired you are free to speak about your experiences.

5. If I am chosen to compete will my expenses be paid?

An economy return trip flight, all lodging and meal expenses will be paid for by the Producers if you are selected and while you are involved. If you are eliminated you will be treated to a golf holiday until the 6th round is completed. We are subject to unpredictable climate, which may or may not prolong the duration of the event. We will require you one day prior to the event for an orientation meeting and you will depart the day after the conclusion of the event barring any unforeseen circumstances.

6. How do I know if you received my complete application and support material?

We will not be able to answer any questions about the receipt of your application and tape. We recommend you send your application package through registered mail (Canada or U.S. Post) or courier service (UPS, Fed-Ex, etc.) that can track your package for guaranteed delivery.

7. What type of individuals are you looking for?

We are looking for passionate golfers from any occupation who feel they have the ability, confidence, stamina, sense of humor and good health to participate in this hectic tournament. We are looking for applicants with a reasonable and proven aptitude for golf. We want good sports with a sense of humor and a willingness to have themselves documented by our TV crews 24/7 throughout the event.

8. If I am chosen to be a participant will I be compensated for my time?

Participants will be playing for a grand prize and some in-show rewards that will be announced at a later date. In addition to your travel, accommodation and living expenses each player will win $100 (CAD) for each day they survive the tournament. (i.e. The first player eliminated will have earned $100 while the two to three finalists in round six will have earned $600 each and a chance to win the grand prize.)

9. Does it matter what Province or State I live in.

If you are a resident of Quebec you are probably not eligible to participate as the government has distinct rules and regulations regarding such competitions. This project is being staged and managed in Ontario, Canada by a business incorporated in Ontario and is not registered in Quebec. Due to the linkages of internet, news agencies and other media, people may be applying from all over North America. The Producers cannot register this competition within every district, province, state, territory, region or other territorial jurisdiction where, in some cases, they may have rules about competitions for prizes or money. Citizens in other Provinces, territories or States are welcome to apply but should check with their Provincial or State authorities to find out if there are any restrictions that may nullify or affect their ability to submit an application.

10. Do I need to be a super athlete to participate?

Absolutely not, but you do need to love golf and be in good mental and physical health and able to cope with the pressure and stress that will be imposed. If considered for selection the Producers will have to contact your doctor or medical practitioner for production insurance purposes.

11. Will I be able to contact my family or friends while I am participating in the show?

As the competition will be documented and released after the event it is imperative that the results, at any stage of the tournament, experienced by you or others remain confidential. Participants cannot contact their families during the production nor will they be able to discuss the details or results of the competition with anyone until the series completes airing on TV. If there is any emergency at home your friends or family can contact the Producers who will notify you immediately.

12. What are the guidelines for my VHS, high eight or digital video?

You should speak directly to the camera for no longer than five minutes. (Ideally a head to waist framing works best.) Tell us who you are, where you live, what you do for a living, what you like to do for fun, what you don't like to do and why you think the Producers should choose you over other applicants. This is an opportunity to give the Producers a glimpse of you on-camera.

13. What if I don't have a video camera?

Borrow one from a friend, neighbor or colleague at work. Beg and plead or have them tape you. Have students at a nearby school tape you. This is a TV series and the Producers want to see you on-camera if at all possible.

14. Will my application video be returned to me?

No. All videotapes and application materials will become the sole property of the Producers once submitted, and will not be returned to you, whether or not you are selected as a contestant.

15. Are there any tax implications if I win prizes or cash?

It all depends on where you reside, your personal taxation levels and tax laws concerning such matters. Winners will be responsible for recording and reporting any and all prizes, reward values or cash won according to the tax laws in their Province, State and Country. The Producers will not be responsible for declaring the prizes, rewards or cash won on behalf of competitors to their respective Federal, State, Provincial, Municipal or any other Revenue authorities. Taxes on any winnings are the winner's responsibility. Prizes will be awarded in southern Ontario and become the property of the winner who will then be responsible for any shipping or handling charges, if any, to have the prize(s) returned to their home.

16. Will participating affect me if I'm hoping to become a professional golfer?

Participating may very well impact your future hopes of becoming a professional. The Producers fully respect the rules and regulations established by Professional Golf Associations throughout North America and advise any applicant with professional aspirations to clarify such matters with the golf authorities in their respective jurisdictions. If you apply to compete the Producers will assume that you've contacted golf association authorities and have complied with their rules and regulations regarding the competition. The Producers will not be responsible for obtaining or providing any waivers or clearances from golf authorities regarding your right to participate. The competition is not open to any professional golfers and all competitors will be regarded as amateurs who simply have a passion to play golf and do so with some consistent level of competency and skill – as reflected by a verifiable handicap.

17. Can you provide me with an itinerary for the tournament?

The Producers will reveal nothing to you in advance. Your itinerary will only be known to the Producers and their associates. You will not know what courses you are going to play nor where you are going to stay from day to day. Your travel, accommodation and hospitality will be completely taken care of for you. The caliber of hospitality you experience will, to some extent, depend on the results of your day to day achievements during the tournament. We will make sure that you don't have to eat any living, crawling or wiggling creatures.

18. If I'm selected what am I allowed to bring with me?

Pack as though you are going on a golfing holiday for two weeks. Bring your own golf clubs, balls, tees, gloves, etc.. You are not allowed to bring any cameras, sound recording equipment, cell phones or other digital or electronic recreational or business equipment. Anyone caught with any recording or communication devices of any kind will automatically be disqualified from the tournament. The Producers will provide you with a copy of the series once the programs have completed airing.

19. Should I bring money and credit cards with me?

You can bring money, credit cards and certainly your personal identification, driver license, health cards, family photographs and any other important identification. As all your living expenses will be provided for. There will be no time for shopping while in the tournament unless you are one of those eliminated.

20. When will this all take place?

Taping could begin as early as this October, 2007 or - due to reasons beyond the Producers control, at a later date. Those selected will be given as much notice as possible so they can make appropriate arrangements.

21. What is the grand prize?

The Grand Prize is offered by one of our sponsors and will be divulged to applicants who are being considered as competitors. The worst case scenario for competitors will be an all expenses paid six days of golf, travel, accommodations, meals, meeting new people, new travel experiences and $100 (CAD) for each day they survive the tournament. That being said, the premise of the tournament is based on competitors who are absolutely fanatical about playing golf and having the experience of a lifetime, regardless of any grand prize.

We hope this answers some of your questions.

Due to the volume of applications we cannot respond to any other questions.

If you are considered a potential candidate the Producers will contact you by telephone for an interview and will provide more detailed information at that time.

Professional golfers, past or present, and those hoping to be Professional are not eligible to apply. This competition is for amateurs only.
